Patient Acknowledgement of No Medicare Part A or B Coverage

The providers of Alaska Psychological Services (APS) are in no way contracted or affiliated with Medicare.

Alaska Psychological Services is not enrolled with or able to submit claims to Medicare for consideration and reimbursement of treatment provided to Medicare beneficiaries. Due to legislation outlined in Section 1848 of the Social Security Act, the providers of APS may not treat any qualified Medicare beneficiary regardless of the beneficiary's other health insurance coverage or willingness to pay.

If APS discovers you have Medicare in the course of processing other health coverage, you will be terminated from service and billed for the full price of any services provided to you. Non-payment for services provided due to non-disclosure are subject to collections and or civil suit.
